

GOODDEATH.IN · THE FIVE QUESTIONS

When you cannot decide, ask these five.

Cut along the dotted line. Carry it.

The five questions

1. What is the kindest week we can give them?
2. Are we waiting for them, or for ourselves?
3. Would another vet read this differently?
4. What does the animal's body tell us today?
5. If today were the day, what would we want it to look like?

The five questions

Designed to be read in the moment your mind has gone quiet. None of them have right answers. Each makes the next conversation possible.

Print on heavy card stock if you can; ordinary paper folded twice works too. Cut along the dotted lines. Front goes outward. Carry it where you keep your debit card.
